Introduction: Website Design Activity

In this activity, students create an e-business website.  The purpose of the site is to market an arts and culture related product and/or service. The target audience is potential customers and business partners.